Kanopy is a streaming service offered through the library, providing access to different movies, documentaries and films with no fees or commercials. To browse the available titles, go to www.fortsmithlibrary.org and click on the Kanopy option under Books, Movies & More. Browsing can be done immediately, however an account is required to watch any of the titles.

Credits
Each card has 6 "play credits" available at the start of the month. This can be seen at the top right of the screen. A credit is spent the first time a title is watched and permits access to that title for the following 72 hours. Trying to watch a title again after the 72 hours will result in another credit being used. Credits will be reset to 6 total when the new month begins.
